MEMORANDUM

Your Honor:

This memorandum is an addendum to the memorandums submitted to the Court on August 3 and August 17, 2006. On August 18, 2006, after Mr. Williams' bail violation hearing he reported to Pretrial Services and submitted a positive test for marijuana. When questioned about the positive test result by the Pretrial Services Officer Assistant administering the test, Mr. Williams' stated he may be testing positive because of some "supplements" he had taken. However, when Mr. Williams' was questioned more extensively by the undersigned officer he completely denied using any illicit substances since June, 2006. He did not mention that the test result might be positive because of his use of "supplements".

During this same office visit Mr. Williams also advised Pretrial Services that he was going on a family reunion cruise to Freeport in the Caribbean from August 19, 2006, to August 26, 2006. Mr. Williams advised that Pretrial Services Officer Ron Pease, Assistant United States Attorney George Bevan and his attorney, Michael Berger, were all aware of the arrangements. When questioned about how he could afford such a trip, Mr. Williams indicated his grandmother was paying for it.

The undersigned officer subsequently spoke to Officer Pease who advised that the defendant did not ever advise that he was taking the trip to Freeport. Officer Pease did confirm that Mr. Williams reported to him in person upon his return from the trip (on August 27, 2006) and tested negative for any illicit substances.

Furthermore, Mr. Williams reported to Pretrial Services in the Northern District of California (Oakland) on September 6, 2006, to submit a drug test, which was negative. Mr. Williams related that he was in the Northern District to prepare for his sentencing hearing and he came in to submit his drug test because he had missed a test in the District of Nevada the day before. Mr. Williams also advised that he has quit his job in anticipation of his upcoming sentencing hearing on September 11, 2006, before the Honorable Claudia Wilken, U.S. District Court Judge.

The undersigned Officer was not in the office to meet with Mr. Williams to discuss the information regarding his trip, or his quitting his job. It is also noteworthy that U.S. Probation Officer Charlie Mabie has advised that the defendant's sentencing hearing will likely be postponed.
